

TAYLOR CAN RETURN

To Kentucky Without Danger of Arrest.

THE WARRANT IS SUSPENDED

Which Stood Against Him—
Order Entered on the Court Records.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 10.—William S. Taylor, who has been a fugitive from the Kentucky law within the borders of Indiana for more than seven years past, can now return to his native State without fear of arrest, under indictment for complicity in the murder of William Goebel.

At the convening of the Franklin Circuit Court here this morning upon motion of Commonwealth's Attorney Robert B. Franklin, and following an explanatory statement from him, Judge Robert L. Stout entered an order suspending the warrant for the arrest of Taylor, which has lain dormant these years. By this order the immunity to arrest of Taylor is made absolute, and he can now return to Kentucky secure from molestation by any peace officer of the Commonwealth.

This order, freeing for the time being, the fugitive ex-Governor from the process of the law is entered upon the stipulation that his return to Kentucky is to be for the purpose of testifying in the case of the Commonwealth against Caleb Powers, against whom three juries have brought in a verdict of guilty of conspiracy to accomplish the murder of Goebel, and who is to be tried the fourth time at Georgetown at an early date.

Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin made this statement to the court this morning at the beginning of the present term and upon the calling of the criminal docket. The cases against Finley, Golden, Powers and others indicted for the Goebel murder were passed as usual.

When the case of Taylor was called, he arose and addressed the court as follows:

"In that case, if your Honor please, I wish to say that there have been three trials of Caleb Powers at Georgetown on a change of venue from this court. I want to ask your Honor that the warrant on this indictment be suspended. That your Honor enter an order making immune from arrest under the charge contained in this indictment W. S. Taylor during such time as convenient in coming from Indiana to Georgetown to testify in the case of the Commonwealth against Caleb Powers on an indictment pending against him in the Goebel case. My object in asking this is that the interests of justice may be conserved.

"W. S. Taylor has never been arrested under this indictment. He is now going at large, protected from arrest in Indiana. He has been protected twice by two Governors of Indiana, when the Governor of Kentucky has made requisition to the end that he be brought back to Kentucky and put upon trial. He is without the jurisdiction of this court or the Scott County Circuit Court, and is remaining away as a fugitive without the desires or the aid of the Commonwealth. If Powers desires or needs W. S. Taylor as a witness I can't for the life of me see how the Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y. on every bottle.

Commonwealth of Kentucky will be hurt by permitting Taylor to come and testify and return to Indiana, for the reason that Taylor would occupy after his return, with reference to the one to the other, the place where before any of these proceedings took place.

"The Commonwealth has no jurisdiction to force Taylor to return. The Commonwealth wants Powers to have the benefit of Taylor's testimony at his coming trial, which will be sure to be held this fall and probably very shortly. And I ask your honor that you make an order permitting W. S. Taylor to come to Scott county from Indiana to testify and return to Indiana, immune from arrest for this sole purpose for that time."

Judge Stout said: "All right; you prepare the order."

Arthur Goebel was present in court when this order was entered and sat with averted face during the proceedings. He had nothing to say, but it is understood that this step is taken with his concurrence.

A WOMAN VICTIM OF ELEPHANTIASIS

Now Tips the Scales at 525
Pounds and is Gaining Every Day.

New York, September 14.—Physicians at the Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, have a most remarkable case of that rare disease elephantiasis. The patient is Mrs. Juliette Felt, of Brooklyn, a widow, 63 years old. Before she was attacked by the disease she weighed 149 pounds. She now weighs 525 pounds and is gaining daily in size. Her skin is thick, hard and coarse, like that of an elephant.

The disease first manifested itself seven years ago. It began with an itching in one of her legs. This ceased after a time, but it was presently followed by a swelling of the limb, accompanied by pain. Then she took on weight rapidly.

The body, arms and legs have been the parts affected, but not her face. She thought herself growing fat from natural causes, but could not account for the pain which attended her increase in bulk. Two years ago she found she weighed 350 pounds and then in alarm she resorted to medicines and dieting, but these measures were of no avail. A week ago a physician diagnosed her trouble as elephantiasis.

An idea of the effect of the disease may be judged from the fact that each of her legs is as large in circumference as the body of a well developed man. The doctors do not yet know whether she will recover.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation. It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quins, hoarseness, phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at J. H. Williams' drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

His "Holler" Tooth.

"This morning an Italian came in to my store and asked for something for a toothache," remarked the druggist. "I inquired if the tooth had a holler."

"Holler!" he exclaimed; "sure, all last night I holler lika hell."

NAMES OF THE MEN

Who Paid Money to Help
Elect Roosevelt.

MYSTERY HAS BEEN CLEARED

Men Who Contributed $260,000 to the Campaign
Fund of 1904.

The mystery concerning the campaign fund raised by Edward Henry Harriman on October 29, 1904, "at the personal solicitation of President Roosevelt," has been cleared up by the World and is set forth below. The amount of that fund, names of the subscribers thereto, and the manner of its collection by Mr. Harriman and United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew have been obtained from a source that leaves no room for question. The exact amount of the fund was $260,000, not $200,000, as has been stated. The names of the subscribers to it and the amount given by each of them are as follows:

Edward H. Harriman	$ 50,000
H. McK. Twombly (representing the Vanderbilt interests)	25,000
Chauncey M. Depew (personal)	25,000
James Hazen Hyde	25,000
The Equitable Life Assurance Society	10,000
J. Pierpont Morgan	10,000
George W. Perkins (New York Life Insurance Company)	10,000
H. H. Rogers, John D. Archbold and William Rockefeller (Standard Oil Company)	30,000
James Speyer and Banking Interests	10,000
Cornelius N. Bliss (personal)	10,000
Seven friends of Senator Depew	$5,000 each
Sent to Mr. Harriman in smaller donations	20,000
Total	$260,000

This sum of money, exceeding by $60,000 the amount estimated by Geo. B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican National Committee, and B. B. Odell, Jr., chairman of the State Committee, to be necessary to insure the election of Mr. Roosevelt as President and Mr. Higgins as Governor, was collected by Mr. Harriman and Senator Depew and turned over by Mr. Harriman to Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican National Committee.

Mr. Bliss gave his check for the full amount to Mr. Cortelyou. The latter retained $60,000 of it for his own uses in the State and gave his check for the remaining $200,000 to Mr. Odell.—New York World.

A Traveling Man Received the Thanks of Every Passenger in the Car.

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, so bad in fact that I was almost afraid to take the risk; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." How Money Will Grow.
A $5 gold piece deposited in the Meriden Savings bank of Meriden, Conn., 55 years ago to the account of W. B. Lindsey, now Superintendent of the Peninsula division of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, has grown to the sum of $73.01—almost 15 times the original amount. Mr. Lindsey was 7 years of age when the deposit was made for him September 30, 1852. The account was opened by his grandfather. The incident was forgotten when the young man launched out into the world for himself, and it was recalled only this week on the receipt of advices from the bank.

No Use of Emphasizing It.

A Philosopher once Met an Ass who was Braying loudly. Said the Philosopher, "Are you in Trouble or Pain?"

"No," replied the Ass.

"Then," inquired the Philosopher, "why are you making all that Racket?"

"Because," answered the Ass, "I want to make a Noise in the World."

"Reflect, my long-eared Friend," admonished the Philosopher, solemnly, "that while you make a Noise all right, that Braying simply calls everybody's Attention to the Fact that you ARE an Ass."

NEGRO KILLS TRAMP; FEEDS BODY TO HOGS

Also Accused of Brutal Assault Upon Two Little Girls—Arrested.

Baltimore, Sept. 11.—Arrested on a charge of criminal assault committed upon two eight-year-old girls, Joseph Green, colored, twenty-one years old, is now held by the police as the alleged murderer of a tramp, whose body the negro is said to have afterward fed to a drove of hogs.

The accusers of the negro in the matter of the alleged murder are two nine-year-old boys, brothers of the little girls, who say they saw the man's victim. The boys say they were on two bridges separated more than the length of a city block, between which is a field in which a drove of hogs is kept.

Sitting under a tree in the field they saw a white man, apparently a tramp, who held a fowl in his hands. A man whom the boys identified as Green approached and attempted to take the fowl from the white man and a fight ensued, during which the negro beat the white man over the head with a club.

Then, say the boys, he stripped the body and with the same club used on his victim drove the hogs about the body and waited nearby until the animals had stripped the flesh from the skeleton.

The negro, then, according to the boys, deliberately gathered up the bones and threw them into a nearby stream, taking up the clothing of his victim, and the fowl for which the men had fought, he disappeared in the direction of the Claremont stock yards.

The murder is said to have been committed last Saturday and the assault upon the little girls Monday.
